

Dear friends,

Well, here's just a short note to say we're on the way! Jackie, myself and Bev Ricker board our KLM flight to Amsterdam tonight.

Here is our itinerary:

Thursday, October 31: 9:40 p.m.: Leave Minneapolis. Fly to Amsterdam, overnight there, fly to Kiev, then take train to Krivoy Rog

Sunday, Nov. 3: 7:00 a.m. Arrive in Krivoy Rog

Pastor Gregori said, "It will be like a holiday for us! We'll have meetings from morning till night every day!" We called pastor Gregori two weeks ago. What a privilege to talk to him almost directly, now that he has a phone, and we have a live-in Russian interpreter! (Jen) When we were there 16 months ago, there were 5 churches. Now there are 15 new ones! Wow! He also said the container of humanitarian aid had arrived! Hallelujah! Glory to the Lord!

Saturday evening, Nov. 9: Leave Krivoy Rog by train for Kiev

Sunday, Nov. 10: Fly from Kiev to Amsterdam

We will go to Heidebeeke, 1 1/2 hr by train from Amsterdam. There we will teach (Mon. - Fri.) on Intercession and Spiritual Warfare in the YWAM Discipleship Training School which is being led by Marcia LaRock, missionary from our church. It is a wonderful opportunity to sow spiritual seed into students from many nations, who are being prepared to serve in many nations!

We also look forward to seeing Marcia. We'd like to bring encouragement to her. She'll as likely be an encouragement to us!

Saturday, Nov. 16: We will teach a one day prayer and warfare seminar open to believers from churches near the YWAM base.

Sunday, Nov. 17: Fly home.

Please pray for physical energy in a busy schedule, for anointing of the Holy Spirit on our ministry, and for health and safety as we travel.

Pray also for our personal financial needs. All the trip expenses have come in, and for that we praise the Lord! But we need a breakthrough in a deficit in our personal needs.

We love you, and thanks for praying for us!

Love,

John and Jackie
